

Regulation of Treaties Bill

A Bill to ensure the integrity of the Republic of Icenia and its legal system in regards to international diplomacy, relations, and agreements, particularly with wayward foreign entities.

Schedule 1: Amend The Hansard Act to include the following articles:

Article 9: A Treaty is a Bill passed by the Senate which involves, wholly or in part, an agreement, arrangement, contract, etc with a foreign entity.

Article 10: Any Treaty passed by the Senate shall only be considered signed, ratified, and in effect when all other parties have likewise ratified the same treaty.

Article 11: Any and all modifications to a Treaty must be approved by the Senate unless made by a treaty-defined body with relevant powers.
